Vienna, January 27.

THE Emperour has made several new Promotions in the Council of Spain, and has appointed Councillours of the Cap and Sword, viz. the Marquess de Villator, Count de Monte-Santo, for the Kingdom of Naples; the Count de Cervellon for the Kingdom of Sicily; and Count William de Sinzendorf for the Duchy of Milan. A great Council of War was held on Sunday last at Prince Eugene's House. 'Tis expected that the States of Hungary will have concluded their principal Matters by the Beginning of next Month, and will break up shortly after. The Quarter-Master belonging to the Household is set out for Prague, to prepare the Apartments against their Imperial Majesties Arrival; and Count de Martinitz is to set out for Carlsbad, to get Things in Readiness there against the Emperess's coming. It is generally reported, that the Affair of Tecklenberg was determined the 21st Instant.

Hambourg, Jan. 29. The last Advices from Sweden say, that the Meeting of the States of the Kingdom is put off to the Middle of next Month, that being the utmost Time it can be delayed. A certain Person is taken up at Stockholm, for keeping unlawful Correspondence with a Prince in Russia, to whom the other sent Accounts from Time to Time of the Transactions in Sweden. Letters from Moscow give an Account, that Orders are given to several Regiments to be in a Readiness to march to Derbent by April next, and that a great Number of Sledges were provided to carry Ammunition of all kinds to Jaratoff, to be conveyed from thence to Astracan.

Hambourg, Jan. 30. M. Boticher, the Czar's Minister here, and several Merchants, have received Advices from their Correspondents at Petersbourg and Moscow, of the Magnificent Entry made by their Czarish Majesties into their Capital; and likewise, that the Differences between the Czar and the Ottoman Porte, are in a Train of Accommodation; 'tis said also, that the Turkish Minister at Moscow being informed of the Czar's true Designs with respect to Persia, is thoroughly satisfied, and had given Assurances that the Porte would in like Manner be contented, which has caused great Joy at Moscow. ----- Nevertheless, this News agrees not at all with a Letter wrote from a foreign Minister at Constantinople, dated the 24th of December past at Pera, giving an Account, that the Imperial Resident M. Dierling being called to an Audience of the Grand Vizier, had received fresh Declarations from him, that the warlike Preparations now carrying on at the Porte no Ways regarded the Emperour nor any of his Allies, the Grand Signior being determined to adhere to the Treaty of Passarowitz; and to confirm this, the Porte is resolved to send a Minister to reside at the Imperial Court in like Manner as M. Dierling does at Constantinople; that the Grand Vizier also gave him a Letter for Prince Eugene: The said Minister also writes, that the Divan has been convened in Presence of the Grand Sultan, in which, Letters from the Chams of the Usbeck and Daguestan Tartars were read; that afterwards, the Grand Vizier made a Speech, setting forth the vast Designs of the Czar, earnestly recommending to the Consideration of the Ministers of the Divan the Contents of the aforesaid Letters, which clearly manifest that if once the Czar be permitted to establish his Power in Georgia and Daguestan, it will be very difficult to dispossess him; that he would become Master of the Chams under the Protection of the Porte, and in time would insult the Kingdom of Persia and extend his Conquests: That after these Representations, the Grand Vizier added, in his Opinion, it were convenient to recall Mehemet Bashaw from the Czar's Court, to have a verbal Account from him what Resolution the Czar has taken upon the Remonstrances the said Mehemet Bashaw had Orders to make him; and accordingly in two Days afterwards, a Courier was dispatched to Mehemet Bashaw, requiring him to return forthwith to Constantinople. This Minister adds further, that Expresses were sent not only to the Bashaws and Governors on the Frontiers of Persia, but to others, ordering them to hold their Troops in a readiness to march; and that a Rupture was expected between the Ottoman Porte and the Czar.

Hague, Jan. 29. The States of Holland have adjourn'd their next Meeting to the 3d of next Month, when they will resume their Consideration about paying the Debts of North-Holland. Since the last Memorial which the Danish Resident presented to the States, they have resolved to let M. Goes continue some Time longer at Copenhagen, and to allow him extraordinary Appointments. The coming hither of a Zealand Deputation, in order to concert Measures with the States of Holland for preventing the setting up of a Stadthouder, is uncertain; the Regency of Zealand, as 'tis given out, being at present divided in their Opinion in that Affair. In the several Conferences that Prince Kurakin had of late with the Ministers of the States, they complained to him of some Hardships put upon their Merchants at Riga; which he took ad Referendum. --- M. Hop is preparing to return to Paris, to be there at the King's Majority.

Brussels, Feb. 4. The Arrival of M. Peter Barnard, an Officer of the Marine, one of the Directors of the pretended Marquess de Blanche's Creditors, who is come hither to prosecute him, gives him great Uneasiness. 'Tis said, that his Bankruptcy amounts to six Millions of Livres in Bills of Liquidation, and that his Creditors, for the most Part, are Persons of the first Rank, or Officers. The Court of France claims this Prisoner, in order to proceed against him, by reason several of his Confederates are seized at Paris; but 'tis doubted if that Claim can be consented to here, not to infringe the Privilege of these Countries. In that Case, 'tis said, Means will be taken to oblige him to confess the Persons to whom he has committed his Effects. In the mean time an Express is sent to the French Court in order to get new Instruction in this Affair. 'Tis reported, that if Difficulty should be made to deliver up the Prisoner to France in the Capacity of a Thief, that Court will however claim him as a Deserter, having been enlisted among the Gendarmes.
